

sydney
sculpture : in public space conference 2 NOVEMBER 2017

Presented by Sculpture by the Sea and sculpture network

Sydney Sculpture Conference 2017 Program

Thursday 2 November
The Studio, Sydney Opera House

Featuring Conference Sessions:

The full 2017 Conference Program will be launched mid-August to join the following sessions:

- MC welcome & introduction – ‘Sculpture: In Public Space’
Stephen Bradley, Manager, Transfield Art Collection
- ‘sculpture network: connections, opportunities and the digital age’
Ralf Kirberg, Chairman, sculpture network (Germany)
André Kirberg – Entrepreneur & Digital Strategist, sculpture network (Germany)
- ‘Artscape Nordland – a site specific project spanning 30 years’
Maaretta Jaukkuri, Curator, Artscape Nordland (Finland/Norway)
- ‘Gibbs Farm – engineering some of the world’s most monumental sculptures’
Peter Boardman, Head Engineer, Structure Design, Gibbs Farm (New Zealand)
- ‘How a statue can shape a city’
Dr Michael Hill, Head of Art History & Theory, National Art School (Sydney)
- Panel Discussion: ‘Women shaping the future of public art’
Panel Chair: Jess Scully, City of Sydney Councillor & Public Art Curator (Sydney)
Panel Contributors:
 - Julie Gough, Artist & Helen Lempriere Scholarship Recipient 2017 (TAS)
 - Claire Healy, Artist (NSW)
 - Louise Paramor, Artist (VIC)
- Sculpture by the Sea, Bondi 2017 Exhibiting Artists
Pecha Kucha presentations by:
 - James Dive, Installation Artist (Sydney)
 - Harrie Fasher, Artist & Helen Lempriere Scholarship Recipient 2017 (NSW)
 - Hanna Hoyne, Artist & Helen Lempriere Scholarship Recipient 2016 (ACT)

Presented by sculpture

by the sea

PO Box 300, Surry Hills
NSW 2010 Australia

Telephone +61 2 8399 0233
Facsimile +61 2 8399 2322

info@sculpturebythesea.com
www.sculpturebythesea.com

sculpture
NETWORK

Sculpture by the Sea Incorporated. ABN 84 103 984 756. Trading as ‘Sculpture by the Sea’.