

FORTUNE COOKIES

Write your own fortune, message, hope or dream!

This artwork by Kasane Low is called 'Indra's Net'.

It's a big web made out of a net, but instead of catching bugs or fish, it's filled with fortune cookies!

You know how fortune cookies have little messages inside? In this artwork, the cookies represent people's hopes and dreams. The cookies in the web show how everyone and everthing is connected.
